GREAT SATISFACTION WITH DR. HALLMAN'S GLASSES.

Dr. D. S. Hornum the noted optician has during the last week paid professional visits and opened an office for weeks at Tarboro, Kingston, Wilson, New Bern, Scotland Neck, Selma, Clinton and Smithfield. Six weeks ago he opened an office at Goldsboro and published a notice to that effect in the papers of each of the above places. He tells the editor of this paper that out of the hundreds furnished with glasses not a single case of dissatisfaction or complaint has come to him. He has furnished glasses to Drs. Hill, Kirby, Miller, Cobb and others and they are greatly pleased. He will be in Goldsboro at the Gregory House 111 Nov. 1st. Those needing glasses fitted to the eye should call on him before he leaves. His method of examining the eye is a remarkable success.

LOCALS.

Mr. Jere Pearsall has moved from Elm to DeVane street.

Mr. Joe Hubbard has accepted a position with Capt. T. H. Patrick.

Capt. R. G. Holmes our popular conductor has moved from Sampson to Elm street.

The Odd Fellows have rented Atkins' Hall, and will hereafter hold their meetings in it.

Mr. Willie Register happened to a painful accident here last week by a very severe sprain of his ankle.

See Mr. Tew's notice about a pair of pants being lost, and any one finding them may know to whom they may be returned.

The Rev. J. W. Turner holds service in the Episcopal church, in town, on Sunday at 11 a. m. The Holy Communion will be celebrated.

It will be heard with deep regret of the sad death of Mrs. P. H. Williams (nee Miss Minnie White) which happened at her father's home this week.

Mr. J. R. Wedding, the Foreman of THE CAUCASIAN office, we are very sorry to know is quite sick, and we may apologize for any omission this week.

Mrs. C. P. Johnson and her two talented daughters left Tuesday for Goldsboro where they will give one of their very enjoyable musical concerts, for the benefit of Odd Fellows Orphanage.

We are glad to note that Mr. Elliott Lee has again been honored by his class mates at Home's School by electing to their highest office. This only another evidence of his deserved popularity and high stand.

The Fife Choir presented Mr. Boykin, their leader with a very handsome Bible last Sunday, as a testimony of their respects. Mr. F. R. Cooper presented it, in a very happy little speech.

President Butler of the State Alliance reached home Monday night after a three weeks trip through the western part of the State. He left Tuesday morning for the eastern part of the State. His first appointment was at Rocky Mount where he organized the Lecturer Bureau for the 2nd District.

See in another column the statement of Col. L. L. Polk in answer to some of the vindictive charges that the partisan press has been making on him. Also see the testimony of Lieut. Farrior. It is a complete vindication. If those who are slandering Col. Polk think they can kill him or any one else by such attacks, they have something yet to learn. The people believe in fair play, and such methods makes a man friends by the score.

Lost.

On Wednesday Sept. 30th, between Clinton and Concord Methodist church, a pair of black worsted Diagonal pants. The finder will greatly oblige by leaving at CAUCASIAN office or returning to REV. J. O. TEW, Clinton, N. C.

A Popular Young Man.

We regret to know that Mr. R. W. Holliday, one of our most popular and deserving young men, has gone to accept a position in Robinson's Drug Store at Goldsboro. Dick was a great favorite here, and his many friends will miss him. He stood well with all, and was deservedly high esteemed both by the old and young. His host of friends will join us in wishing him, a very pleasant, profitable and useful stay at Goldsboro.

A Prominent Visitor.

Mr. Stephen G. Worth, Superintendent of the Central station of the United States Fish Commission, is in the city attending the Exposition. Mr. Worth was for a number of years State Fish Commissioner, and his intelligent labors resulted in largely increasing the fish particularly shad, in our waters. Our fishermen feel the need of a State department now such as we had under Mr. Worth's administration. He and his wife are at Mrs. W. H. Bagley's—State Chronicle.

Mr. Worth who is so well known here, and highly esteemed is visiting now at Mr. J. R. Beaman, Sr. Court.

Convened Monday, Judge E. T. Boykin presiding. His charge to the Grand Jury, is said by all, to have been one of the best ever delivered in this county. It was clear, strong, and and of the highest moral and legal character. His remarks on the condition of our court house and jail, were very eminently proper and of great importance and should be especially considered by our authorities.

Judge Boykin transacted business rapidly, satisfactorily and with the least expense to the county. He is dignified, firm but courteous. Sampson has a right to feel proud of her son.

The criminal docket was very light only three cases of larceny.

Solicitor O. H. Allen with his usual ability, carefulness and kindness represent the State. Mr. Allen has no stronger friends than he has in Sampson and he fully deserves it.

Persons.

Mr. D. J. Rogers attended the Exposition last week.

We are glad to see Mr. L. P. Barbary out again after a few days sickness.

Miss Georgie Hicks of Faison is visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Faison.

Rev. D. B. Clayton preached in Atkins' Hall last Friday night.

Mr. J. E. Fowler one of our young Alliance leaders was in town last Thursday.

Capt. T. H. Patrick was in Wilmington last week on business.

Capt. and Mrs. Wm. A. Johnson Misses Libby Abby and Florence Johnson, were in Wilmington a few days this week attending the Sam Jones meeting.

Mr. K. Bryan of Faison one of the successful young men before the last Supreme Court was in town Saturday on professional business.

Mr. W. H. Williams is back from Lumberton, where he attended the Fife meeting.

Mr. D. M. Pearsall is now acting engineering on C. & W. R. R. in place of Capt. Williams, who is on vacation.

Mr. F. H. Busbee of Raleigh was here on professional business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Johnson returned last week from North where they have been visiting for some time. They were accompanied by Miss Mamie Faison who is just back from Europe where she has been travelling.

The following lawyers are attending court this week, Messrs. O. H. Allen, of Kingston; C. B. Aycock and W. B. Allen, of Goldsboro; Henry Cook and J. G. Shaw, of Fayetteville; Robt. Kornegay, of Kenansville; W. L. Hill and H. L. Stevens, of Warsaw.

Mr. Brady Denning of Smithfield Institute was in town this week.

Miss Sudie Faison returned last Saturday from a visit to Goldsboro.

Mr. Albert Williams of Kenansville is visiting in town.

IN MEMORIAM.

First ten lines free 5 cents (half of advertising rates) for each subsequent line, counting 6 words to the line.

Departed this life on the 28th of August, 1891, at the residence of Jas. Williams, near Rose Hill, in Duplin county, of heart disease, M. Lillie Williams, daughter of George and Sallie Williams, near Newton Grove, Born April 11, 1868.

She was of visiting friends, but before her return the spirit took its flight to the fair fields of Paradise. Her disposition and attendance at church, as well as her daily life, showed reality in religion. We need indeed that a star has set from our church and community, but that instead of being dimmed, it is shedding its glorious light around the throne of God. The church at Newton Grove has lost one of its most prominent members, the family circle one of its brightest jewels, the community one whose life is worthy of imitation. She won many friends by her loving disposition. Her faith was that of an implicit trust in her Savior. When the summons came she was perfectly resigned, her only regret being that of not seeing her parents before dying. Amidst all this apparent gloom we know that she is only gone to inhabit that home where the Savior is gone to prepare, and that, if we only be faithful a little while longer, we shall meet to part no more.

"Oalm on the bosom of thy God, Fair spirit rest thee now! E'en while with us thy footsteps tread, His seal was on thy brow."

JUDSON VERKON.

Dr. D. T. Bell son of W. A. and A. J. Bell was born Dec. 8, 1860 and after a lingering illness of several weeks with typhoid fever gently passed away on the 10th day of Oct. 1891. He was buried at the new cemetery near the residence of his father. He was a young man of fine ability, one that was highly appreciated where known. He had taken his second course in the College of Physicians and Surgeons in Baltimore and had graduated with high honor next June. He was a mason a member of the Greenwood Lodge No. 6, Cumberland county. Sleep brother and rest With your head on Jesus' breast.
